THE PEOPLE OF ASHEVILLE AND BUNCOMBE COUNTY.

Foreword

We are the first students to attend classes in these new buildings and the first to initiate new traditions. This new campus and the modern facilities which we now enjoy were once only a dream. Now, through the efforts of many interested persons, our dream has become a reality. However, we must realize that this is only a beginning and Asheville-Biltmore will continue to progress long after we have departed. We must therefore endeavor to attain greater heights and meet any challenge with vigor and pride while the opportunity presents itself.

We the staff of THE SUMMIT of 1962, in order to express our appreciation and admiration for the new Asheville-Biltmore, have chosen as our theme, OUR NEW CAMPUS.

Since the college marshals are such outstanding representatives of our college, a certain amount of honor should be shown them. Qualifications for this choice are: scholastic ability, leadership and potential. The marshals chosen for 1961 were, LEFT TO RIGHT: Howard Williams, Ann Winters, John Rhinehart, Phyllis Hampton, Allen Wight, Nancy Jolly, and Charles Smith.

RELAXATION AND RECREATION are not ignored at Asheville-Biltmore. Above we see Ray Wallen, Dave Wolfe, Lynn Herron and Phyllis Hampton involved in a "friendly" game of cards.

Athletics

A. B.'s MAJOR SPORT IS BASKETBALL and this year our eagers gave us a .522 average in 23 hard fought games, one of the best records we have had in the past few years. Pictured we have the players, our cheerleaders, and some action shots from the games.

Earl Elingburg (22) drives through the opposition for a two pointer. Dan Grindstaff (32) helps to clear the way.

Arch Smith (24) and Jim Baldwin (23) fight with a Spartanburg player for a rebound.

All of Asheville rejoiced when Maria Fletcher became Miss America of 1962 and Asheville - Biltmore's Cheerleaders were on hand to welcome her back home. It was a great thrill to be a part of the parade given in her honor.

Two new things were added to our cheering section this year; the Victory Bell and the Gong. They both rang loud and clear through many games, helping the cheerleaders but sometimes disturbing the visiting basketball team.

The cheerleaders worked hard and enjoyed an exeiting basketball season this year. Win or lose, they were there to support the team. They conducted pep rallys, arranged bus trips and held a bon fire, to try to encourage school spirit. It was not all work and not all play, but a good combination of the two.

Earl Elingburg (22) takes a pass on his way in for a lay up.
